Mr. Henry Gottwald
4041 Prystup Place
Dayton 39, Ohio

Dear Henry:

I was afraid the Dayton area was not yet ready for a campaign. I do appreciate your efforts in attempting to get such a thing scheduled. Rather than become discouraged, please bear in mind that no effort is better than one that is not properly financed and properly worked. I feel sure that in coming years the Dayton churches will be able to see the value of such an effort, but it will take some growth on the part of all.

I would like to see Bill Fox invited to sing in the meeting at Riverdale. He does as much as any preacher toward the success of meetings where he leads the singing. Our best wishes to you and your wife.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

P.S. I am trying to keep in touch with Dean and send him material along that I think would spur his interest.
