Amarillo, Texas 79101

Dear Bill:

I noticed in the recent Central church bulletin that you had made a talk at one of your young people's gatherings. I was thrilled to know of your continuing interest and happy to see you taking such an active part in the work of the church there. I had hoped to be in Amarillo to speak next Friday, but other commitments prevented it.

Please tell your mother that we will be living in Abilene by July 1. We hope to see you and your family here this summer and then to be able to visit with you after we move to Texas. Keep up your good work.

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk
