Dear Sister Green:

Thank you so much for the recent book I received. We did receive all the coloring books in good condition, and our children have thoroughly enjoyed them. We are so grateful for your thoughtfulness with regard to them.

I regret not having mailed the book you requested sooner than only two days ago. However, you should get it in the very near future.

Enclosed are copies of some of our recent Herald of Truth radio sermons. I thought you would enjoy seeing them and passing them on to anyone you might desire having them. I will look forward to any books you can send. They have all been valuable and wonderful additions to my library. Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John:

I am really overwhelmed at your generous offer of an extra book. I am going to give it to a Presbyterian minister I know as soon as I receive them. There is another book on its way to you and now that September is ^{almost} here, I should have more books than before, as production is always slowed down during July & August.

I am ~~to~~ looking forward to meeting you one of these days, and hope if you are ever in Winnipeg you will look us up.

The only thing I worry about is that I don't put enough postage on the books I send you. I wouldn't like you to have to pay postage on them.

I hope you and your family are well, and the kids received their coloring books alright.
