Mr. J. W. Green
409 Portland
Abilene, Texas

Dear Brother Green:

I noticed in a recent issue of the Highland Helper a notice of the death of your mother, Mrs. William H. Green. Please accept my sympathy and regret at your loss. There is no dearer person in our lives than our mothers. I know that you gave her the kind of attention and encouragement and lived the kind of life that made her very happy.

I appreciate deeply the opportunity to work with you as radio speaker for Herald of Truth. Please pray for this tremendous responsibility and opportunity which is before me.

Accept my best wishes and sincere regrets. I know that you have felt deeply this loss.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
