Dear Brother & Sister Gregory:

Thank you for a lovely meal and wonderful association during our gospel meeting last week in Chattanooga. It was extremely thoughtful of you to take me out for dinner so that the three of us could have more time for conversation and association.

I am deeply impressed with the leadership of the Brainerd congregation. I know that the two of you are making many distinct contributions to the work there. Accept my prayers for you and your family. May the future hold many opportunities for our association and labor in the Kingdom.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
