Editor, The Gospel Advocate

Mr. John Allen Chalk
Box 574
Cookeville, Tenn.

Dear Brother Chalk:

We of the Gospel Advocate appreciate the very fine speech you made at the Anniversary Dinner. I heard many favorable comments on it. It had been my purpose to write you sooner, but last week was unusually busy - so many extras.

As a token of our appreciation of your speech, we want you to pick out twenty-five dollars' worth of books the next time you are in the office.

At this time, I am without a Secretary. Can you recommend a good one?

Come to see us when you are in town.

Yours gratefully,

P. S. There is a remarkable upsurge of interest in the Gospel Advocate at this time. Clubs and commendations are coming in from every section of the country.
