Dear Brother Chalk:

The following men are being invited to have breakfast together at 6:30 a.m., Wednesday, February 23, 1966, during the A. C. C. Lectures at the Ramada Inn in Abilene, Texas: Ed Rockey, Tom Olbricht, Phil Elkins, Walter Burch, George Gurganus, Reuel Lemmons, James Walter Nichols, Norvel Young, Barney Morehead, Bill Banowsky, Ray Chester, Cliff Ganus, John Allen Chalk, Otis Gatewood, Jim Bill McInteer, Prentice Meador, William C. Martin, and Dwain Evans. We would love to have you participate in this fellowship. Some of us feel that there may be a place in the brotherhood for a special type of journal devoted to promotion and education in missions. We plan to discuss the need for such a journal and the possibility of starting one.

Kindest personal regards.

In His service,

George Gurganus
