Dear Don:

An Uncertain Sound has created a certain response in my heart and mind. This labor of love may be just what we need at this point in the history of the church. There can be no question about the lack of an open forum for questions and concerns that challenge the status quo.

Thank you for placing me on your mailing list, and let me know if I can support this effort financially. Convey my concern and commendation to your fellow workers.

Fraternally,

John Allen Chalk
