Dear Bob:

My wife and I have not made a definite decision as to whether we will build, buy, or rent upon our move to Abilene this summer. At the moment, I am dealing with Brother Boyd Field about the possibility of building a house for us in Radford Hills—a four-bedroom brick.

We do not know what arrangements you usually make in situations like this and in what capacity you would be willing to work. Without having consulted Brother Field, we would like to have you take charge of all colors, fixtures, and whatever additional furniture, beyond our present furniture, we would need. We are thinking in terms of a $3,000 lot and a $24,000 house. This appears to be the maximum amount we can afford. This means that we are extremely interested in hearing from you as to suggested procedure, the cost of your services, and any other pertinent information and suggestions you might have.

I would like to hear from you relative to these matters before our trip through Dallas on Thursday, the 24th. Your reply will be appreciated.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
