Mr. Rufe Higgins
215 Childress Street
McMinnville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Higgins:

The recent successful drive in Warren County for a year's support of Herald of Truth on Radio Scotland was due in large measure to the leadership which you and a few others gave to the effort. Brother Harold Roney has singled you out as one of those individuals who played a significant role in this work.

Please accept my personal gratitude for the extra time and effort that I know you gave. It is only by the concern and commitment of men like yourself that Herald of Truth is able to speak to 300 million people today. The success of the Warren County effort means that you have been a part of the single largest contribution ever made from one city or one county to our program.

May the zeal and interest stirred among your people by this effort be of genuine help to the congregation where you work and worship.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
