Dear Margaret:

I didn't know your home address, but I thought sure you would get this letter by sending it to Ralph's business. Sue and I regret not getting to see your family before our move; but you can appreciate all the involvements of moving.

I suppose we are half way settled in Abilene. Our home address is 809 Byrd Drive.

The enclosed letter is self explanatory. Please note the address on the back side and send this lady a copy of your book.

We would like to see you at the Bible Teachers' Workshop. You should contact Brother Fisher and come with some of those making the trip from Cookeville.

Our love and prayers to Jan, Rusty, Ralph and you.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
