Dear John:

Please excuse this delay. As I hoped, I am now a part time student at Marshall University. I am carrying only six (6) hours this semester. One (1) course in Bible and another one (1) in Sociology. If the Lord is with me I shall work toward a Master's in Sociology with a minor in Bible.

I was very pleased to receive another letter from you. Knowing how busy you must be continually. The article you included was very good and thought provoking. Yes, the church of the Lord faces the greatest challenge of all time. I trust she will rise and perform her task well.

John, your fervent prayers are coveted very much. I really need them. Please give my love to your family and do continue to press onward to greater heights in Christ.

In Him,

Ivory
