Huntington, West Virginia

Dear Ivory:

I am glad to hear that you and Alan Bryan are keeping in close touch. I know you all must be so grateful to have him in your area and especially for you to have the privilege of working with him. He has meant a great deal to my life, and I know he will to yours.

We continue to hear the greatest things about our Nashville retreat. I appreciate so much your making arrangements to be present. I know the trip was a trying one for you.

Enclosed is the front page and another page from a recent Advocate issue that you might be interested in looking over if you haven't seen it.

I look forward to keeping in touch with you and having the opportunity to work with you down through the years.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
