Mr. & Mrs. Glenn Studebaker
1501 East Miller
Jefferson City, Missouri

Dear Brother & Sister Studebaker:

I appreciated so much the opportunity to be with you in your home during my recent gospel meeting in Jefferson City. I regret that I did not have more time to visit with Brother Studebaker, but I certainly understood the demands of his job. It was a pleasure to be in your home and to become more acquainted with you.

I was deeply impressed by the progress and the future of the Jefferson City church. I know that you and your family are an important part of the progress that the congregation will experience in the next few years. I am grateful for having had the opportunity to visit in your home and to become more personally acquainted with you.

Please give my regards to Sue. She is a wonderful Christian girl. Thank you so much for all you did to make my visit to Jefferson City a pleasure.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
