Mr. & Mrs. Earl Hoagland
6901 West 85th Terrace
Mission, Kansas

Dear Brother & Sister Hoagland:

Thank you so much for the efforts you expended to make my week in Kansas City a very pleasant one. The opportunity to have breakfast with Sister Hoagland was a delight. I thoroughly enjoyed that opportunity to be associated with her. My family has enjoyed the candy that Brother Hoagland gave me. Thank you so much for your many expressions of kindness and hospitality through the week.

I consider the week in Kansas City for the Training for Service Series one of the most profitable that I have spent this entire year. Thank you so much for all you did to make it the success it was.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
