Dear Sister Keith:

The Training for Service Series started in a grand way on Monday night of last week with the wonderful meal in your home. You are a wonderful Christian hostess, and I deeply appreciated the opportunity to be in your home and enjoy the delicious meal you prepared.

It was a special pleasure to be associated with you through the week. I know that you have special burdens with your job, but you came and gave great support to the effort throughout the week.

It is with extreme pleasure that I remember the visit in your home. I will cherish for a long time the awareness of that evening and the special encouragement that you gave me throughout the week of our Training for Service.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
