Mr. & Mrs. Paul Keckley
4621 Maywood Lane
Chattanooga, Tennessee 37416

Dear Brother and Sister Keckley:

My week in Chattanooga started off right with the lovely meal and association in your home. The most pleasant time of the week, in fact, was with the wonderful group you invited in.

I cannot say enough about Paul's contribution to the meeting. The song service was truly worship and contributed materially to the entire period each evening. I have always felt that our singing was a large factor in the success of any evangelistic effort.

I send all of you my deepest regards and hope for many future opportunities of association.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
