Dear Brother Kennedy:

Thank you so much for the gracious reception I received at the North Michigan Avenue congregation on my recent visit to Chicago-land. We are pleased with the support you and the congregation are giving to Herald of Truth in that area.

I was pleased and happy to preach on Sunday evening and to become better acquainted with you and the great work you are doing. Please convey my best regards to the entire church. Continue to support our work with your prayers and financial help.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
