Worcester, Massachusetts 01602

Dear Bob:

Thank you so much for your September 6 article in the Firm Foundation, "The Fruit Of The Spirit." I think your article is an excellent contribution to the material now being produced on the subject of the Holy Spirit. I also regret that you and Brother J. D. Thomas are the only two men who have contributed positively to the recent discussion of this profound subject.

It was a real pleasure to be with you briefly during the Madison, Wisconsin, campaign. I heard many excellent reports from the brethren there of the encouragement you gave them during the campaign, and of the efforts you expended. I send you my prayers and best wishes, and above all my gratitude for this recent article.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
