Mr. & Mrs. Bill Oden
702 Avenue T
Lubbock, Texas

Dear Ruby and Bill:

It was an extreme pleasure to become personally acquainted with you during my recent meeting at Pioneer Park. One of the great advantages of doing this kind of work is the opportunity to know some very wonderful people. I am so thrilled to know of the plans that you are making and the training that Bill is now getting at Sunset School of Preaching.

It was so thoughtful of you to invite me to be a part of your efforts on behalf of the children from the children's home. I thoroughly enjoyed being with them and with your relatives who do such a good job at the home.

I know Ruby is offering a great deal to the church through her services as secretary, and I know that both of you mean a great deal to the entire congregation. Please accept my gratitude for all you did to make my week a pleasant one and my personal prayers for your work in the future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
