Mr. David L. Desha
4301 Mandrake Road
Madison, Wisconsin

Dear Brother Desha:

I have cleared August 7-14 including the two Sundays for the Madison, Wisconsin, Campaign for Christ. I still have some clearing to do concerning my work here in Cookeville but can assure you at this point that I will be coming. I regret not being able to answer sooner but hope that the finalization of your speaker will add a new thrust to this highly important effort. My prayers are with you.

I will appreciate receiving further information as it's available about the program of your campaign. Unfortunately, I know of no church that could help. As you know, this comes best out of contacts which people in Madison have with churches around the country. Our prayers are with you in this work.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
