Mr. Bob Marshall
435 Illinois Road
Wilmeete, Illinois

Dear Bob:

I am not sure I have written this letter to the correct address but hope that it reaches you. Unfortunately, I had to get out of town immediately after speaking on my recent visit to Chicago. (This doesn't usually happen--my having to get out of town after speaking. On second thought, it is apostolic.)

I feel good about your move to Chicagoland and know from the remarks I heard that you are already providing leadership to the brethren. I appreciate your work with Herald of Truth and solicit your suggestions about what I can do to make the programs better.

I will look forward to seeing you on my next visit to Chicago. Thanks very much for the invitation to eat with you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
