Dear John Allen:

Thanks for your letter of January 14 confirming our meeting to begin on Sunday May 3 and continue through Friday, May 8, 1970. I am sorry I did not get to see you at the Lipscomb Lectures but hope you will be at Abilene. I heard some wonderful lectures at Lipscomb but was disappointed in the attendance. Men like Ira North and George Bailey spoke to audiences of less than five hundred people. I find it remarkable that Abilene is planning to have three lectures simultaneously. Can you explain the difference in the interest in the two places? I hope 1966 has begun in a wonderful way for you.

Sincerely,

Clarence C. Dailey
