Mr. Charles Moore
91 Salem Church Road
Newark, Delaware 19711

Dear Charles:

It was a pleasure to visit with you in Abilene last week and then to travel with you to Dallas on Thursday. My wife and I thoroughly enjoyed our brief visit in the Dallas Airport with you. We hope that your trip home was uneventful.

It was encouraging to hear of your work in Newark. I know you are happy to have a church like a college church behind you. I assure you that we will do everything within our power to try to get on a Philadelphia station as soon as possible. I am asking Brother Wally Bullington to look into this matter and to be acquainted with you and your work as a future contact for our efforts in the Philadelphia area.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
