Dear Bernice and John:

I am thrilled to learn of your friend Grace Green who is willing to send me copies of books published at the place her husband works. I stay almost impoverished because of the hundreds of dollars spent every year for books. I am posting today a copy of The Praying Christ to you which in turn I want you to convey to her.

I did not hear anything in your last letter about the coming operation. I do hope that Bernice is feeling much better and wish for both of you the very best. Thank you so much for passing on to me this wonderful opportunity to receive some books on religious subjects from your friend. You did not include her address in your letter, but I am sure I will receive it later. Our special prayers and concern is yours.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
