Dear brother Chalk:

It was indeed a pleasure to receive your letter of February 16, 1966, and to have your approval of the steps suggested in the bulletin article, that will help us in our preparation for the campaign.

I appreciate your attitude of humility, and I too have assumed that the message and the author of it are really the most important when compared to the 20th century messenger. I think so many times of the attitude and conviction of the apostle Paul, in which he said, "I determined to know nothing, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified."

I will surely appreciate any suggestions you can make that will help us make preparations for the Campaign. I am not in the group that is doing the most work, but as one who is working in the background, I want to do all I can. Use me when you can.

God bless you and yours,

J. T. McClung
