Dear Brethren:

I have just read your brochure, "From the Eye of a Hurricane." The plans revealed therein sound exciting and well advised. You have chosen one of the most effective evangelists of our time. His Biblical and stirring lessons coupled with your extensive teaching program prior to the campaign will certainly produce great results.

Let me assure you of my prayer support of this effort and of my great interest in its success. You will stir and challenge brethren all over the world by this great effort.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
