Dr. F. Douglas Shields
Route 1
Oxford, Mississippi

Dear Brother Shields:

Thank you so much for your kind letter and invitation from the Oxford church to be with you in a meeting in 1966. I regret this tardy reply and above all my inability to be with you any time during the remainder of this year.

I am genuinely interested in the Oxford church and her great challenge on the University of Mississippi campus. Possibly I can work with you at some future time. Convey my regrets and my apology to your elders for not answering sooner.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
