Dear Mary:

Please excuse my failure to answer your wonderful letter received just before Christmas. I have been so completely involved in about four full-time jobs that I haven't had time to take care of my mail properly.

I certainly hope that you and all your family are well again. I had understood from Marian and others that you all had had a time with illness during the winter. If you and your family have not made your trip to Tennessee yet, it will be a pleasure to see you and to become acquainted with your family. We will not move before August 1 to Abilene, Texas, although I am already doing the Herald of Truth radio work.

I do remember with pleasure our association at Freed-Hardeman. I hope that during future visits to Cincinnati I will have the opportunity to visit with you and your family.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
