Dear Jo and Gene:

I regret not having time to come by and give you a personal expression of our gratitude for the ham. Sue and I were thrilled to get it, but were afraid that Big Wes might have offended you in conveying my reminder to Gene. we do appreciate it; and above all, I want to pay for it if ^s to do so. We haven't cut it yet, but are saving it for some important occasion when our Tennessee friends visit us.

I can guarantee you that if you will come to Abilene and visit with us, we will cut the ham! We count you among our very best friends in Cookeville and send you our very best regards. Again, let me say thank you for all the many things both of you did for us during our stay in Cookeville.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
