Dear Stanley:

Thank you so much for your letter. I appreciate your concern for the students on the University of Oregon campus. May God bless all your efforts in this regard.

I would suggest you write Jim Bevis who has done much work in this field and would be able to help you with procedures, techniques, etc.

Dear Brother Chalk:

The University of Oregon in Eugene has an enrollment of over 13,000 students and needs Christ desperately. There is only a small handful of students, perhaps as many as twenty-five, who claim Church of Christ preference, but less than half of them are faithful to the Lord. There is no Church of Christ Bible Chair or student center here.

There is a denominational college near the campus whose influence makes it infeasible to have a Bible Chair at the present time. There are a few of us who are eager to do all we can to evangelize on campus. Since we lack experience in campus evangelism, we would appreciate very much any information or advice you could give us concerning programs, procedures, and techniques, and also names of any individuals who might have further information.

Thank you very much. We are very desirous of your prayers and help.

Sincerely yours in Christ
