Dear John Allen:

It is extremely difficult, if not impossible, to convey to you the joy + delight which was mine, even if for only two of your sermons in your meeting at Brainerd.

Believe me, you have developed a style in presenting the Word of God which is grandly unique; full of power and conviction. Moreover, your depth of thought + scholarship on Biblical themes is truly traying. Of course, you have an unending search for knowledge which will hold you in good stead for the work which you have set out to do. In this respect, you are a lot like our late and beloved H. Leo Boles. He never ceased to study.

We wish for you many full years of active service in the Master's vineyard. May we have a word from you sometimes.

Fraternally,

J. L. Salmons

Dear Tom:

What a welcomed letter yours was. I was feeling the pressures and burdens of my over-crowded schedule when this "fresh breeze" came to my desk.

I esteem your judgment and sincerely solicit your advice at any time you feel you have suggestions to make about my work. Because of the value I place on your judgment, I will naturally listen carefully to anything you say.

I pray that the future will bring us together in many mutual endeavors. Please give my regards to your lovely family. It was such a joy to see you last week.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
