Dear Jack:

Your recent letter was very kind and deeply appreciated. From many participants I have heard some excellent reactions to our recent retreat. Although I had very little to do with it, I was extremely happy to be a part of it.

Your attendance would have meant much and would have represented a greater participation from the West Coast than we got from those who came. Brother Young did not attend all the sessions, and Brother Pack also had several distractions. They did lend, however, a great measure of "status" to the effort, and we are grateful for their coming.

My best wishes in your work at Claremont. It is with deep appreciation that I count you as one of my personal friends.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
