Dear John Allen:

For several weeks I have intended to write you and express my personal appreciation for the excellent Herald of Truth sermons. Listening to the program used to be a painful experience; now it is a pleasant one. Your presentations are first rate, and you are to be congratulated.

If you have copies of your address in Nashville, I would like very much to have one. Let me know if you have had any expenses in preparing these copies, and I will gladly help defray costs.

The meeting in Nashville is still very much on my mind. I feel sure that the spirit expressed in this meeting will have a profound effect on the church, and my only regret is that it has been so long in coming.

Cordially,

David Stewart
