Dear Brother & Sister Straughn:

Please accept my apologies for being unable to visit in your home and accept your wonderful hospitality. Brother and Sister Wise told me about what I missed which made my regret even deeper.

My impressions of the elders of the Brainerd congregation are extremely favorable. I appreciate so deeply the way they are leading the congregation and the degree to which they are concerned about their spiritual responsibilities. My prayers are for your continued participation in the great work being done there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
