Dear Bob:

Thank you so much for your kind letter and remarks about our Herald of Truth broadcast. We earnestly solicit your continued support of the program and welcome any constructive criticisms you might want to offer.

I do not believe that John L. Meadows is the man you are seeking to send to Newport. In your report to the brethren there you might say that Brother Meadows does attend our services regularly but that a severe personality problem makes it impossible for him to do a sustained work with a local congregation. I make this statement in view of the number of times he has gone away from here to work with churches only to return home within a month or two.

I know that you will keep this reply confidential. We are happy to help in whatever way we can.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
