Dear John Allen.

Thank you for your concern for my parents welfare. I would appreciate your sending them a letter of explanation, and perhaps you could ask your friend, Bill Young, drop in to call on them.

I know you are very busy, and I can easily understand how impossible it was to get by while you were in Sublock.

We think of you often. Hope you continue with good health and God's spirit.

In Christ,

Troy

P.S. Who knows? I may be seeing something of you some day. We're thinking of trying to go to A.C.C.
