Dear Brother White:

I have not forgotten your request for a short message to be used at the February 12 fellowship dinner concerning the California Campaign for Christ. I will be in Abilene next week and will make a tape at that time on Monday, January 31, and will have it air mailed from there to you.

Any suggestions from time to time that you have, which will allow me to encourage the planning of this effort, I will be happy to receive. I do hope that we will be able to involve the entire state in this effort. Obviously, this kind of project does not have to have a super organization to do an effective job. God bless you and your fellow elders at Inglewood in providing the inspiration and leadership for this work.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
