Dear Jim:

I have not forgotten my obligation to furnish you a copy of last year's presentation at your YOUTH FORUM. I ought to be able to get that completed in the next couple of weeks if you still desire it.

I will be happy to speak during your third annual YOUTH FORUM, July 29 or 30. I probably will have time for only one presentation but will be happy to work with you any way you desire.

You may be interested in knowing that one of our members in Ensor Park is conducting a cottage meeting with Mrs. Jackson. This has just started so I have no full report at this time. Please pray for this study that it may bear fruit among your relatives.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
