Dear Flavil:

Lyle Dalzell tells me you have been one of our most energetic key men for Herald of Truth. I was so thrilled to know of your interest and, above all, of your unselfish willingness to give of your time and effort. I was especially pleased because of the way I have cherished our friendship since 1963 and our opportunity to be together during the McGarvey program.

Herald of Truth is a reality today only because brethren just like you all over the country have been willing to take time and to inform others of our needs and our opportunities. I have always had great faith in the brethren and believe more strongly than ever than when we properly inform them and that when we answer their questions, showing them the real need and challenge, that they will respond. Your efforts have made that abundantly clear. I wanted to offer my personal word of thanks for what you have done for the program and for what I know you will do in the days ahead.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
