Dear Brother Winkler:

Enclosed is the long-range plan for the Broad Street Church which you requested. Unfortunately, this plan is heavily oriented toward the kind of building the next 50 years will require and has very little to say about the necessary programs to effectively face the church's challenge in the 20th century. It may be of some help to you, however, and we are glad to share it.

We are happy to learn of the farsightedness of your brethren. We pray that your efforts toward a 50-year plan will result in a greater and stronger church of the Lord Jesus.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
