Mr. Wayne Kilpatrick
Swartz Creek Church of Christ
4410 South Seymour Road
Swartz Creek, Michigan

Dear Wayne:

We thoroughly enjoyed our visit in Flint and appreciated the kind and enthusiastic manner in which you and your elders received the program. Thank you for taking the time and making the effort to come.

Unfortunately, I see no way to work with you in a meeting in the near future. I do appreciate the kind remarks, but I know that there are plenty of men who can do the job you want done; and my schedule is going to have to be radically cut as it now stands, much less with adding other burdens to it.

I can come for a short meeting in 1972, possibly giving you a Sunday through Friday, if the elders desire to schedule such a meeting. I have tentatively listed Easter Sunday through Friday evening, 1972, but will await your confirmation. Thanks for sending the bulletin. I enjoy hearing of the tremendous growth being enjoyed by the church there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
