Dear Brother West:

We are grateful to you for rendering such an invaluable service last week in presenting your four lectures on Revelation. Our people at Broad Street and Christians from the entire area were thrilled to see the great book come to life under your spell-binding presentations of its truths.

I personally was thrilled to hear you and once again be stirred to study the book more deeply and to gain inspiration and encouragement from its precepts. We know that the week would not have been the success it was without providing our people the opportunity to hear you and to see into the treasures of Revelation.

We had no problem with the car. I regret that the key I gave you had a blemish on it that prevented it working. I had a second key that the locks all worked well with it. We did not help you by lending the car but intended the best commendation. Thank you so much for coming. I understand the Elders gave you one check which I hope was sufficient to cover your food and plane expenses.

We send you and your efforts with the school our deepest regards, best wishes, and prayers.

Fraternally,

John Allen Chalk
