Mr. Truman E. Spring
Garden Oaks Church of Christ
4926 North Shepard Drive
Houston, Texas

Dear Truman:

I am sorry to have created so much unnecessary letter writing relative to my proposed meeting at Garden Oaks for 1972. I just like to get these annoying details out of the way as soon as possible but perfectly understand if the elders desire not to make a definite commitment about the date at this date. I have tentatively reserved the dates of Sunday, March 19, through Friday, March 24, 1972, and Sunday, May 7, through Friday, May 12, of the same year. Whenever the elders see fit in the future to make a choice of one of these dates, I will be happy to hear from them.

The Lois Williams family was through here this weekend and we enjoyed a pleasant visit with them. They got in on the last part of our gospel tent meeting and we were so glad to have them in our services on Sunday. My personal best wishes to you and your continued evangelistic efforts.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
