Dear Truman:

I am sorry to keep troubling you with the scheduling of my proposed meeting with Garden Oaks for 1972. You, of course, know the difficulties involved in getting dates worked out for gospel meetings. I would like to suggest that the meeting begin on Sunday, May 7, and continue through Friday night, May 12, 1972. The elders might want to consider Sunday, March 19, through Friday night, March 24.

If either one of these dates is acceptable, I will look forward to hearing from you whenever a decision is made. If the elders desire to consider another time, any alternate suggestion they have will be considered.

You are having some very successful gospel meetings this year as always. I follow your work with close interest and wish for you great success and glory to God.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
