Dear Tommy:

O
Thank you so much for your fine call last week during our visit to Abilene. I don't know at this point exactly when we will be moving to Abilene other than it will be prior to September 1, 1966. At that time, I will be happy to have you look over my total insurance program and make any suggestions you desire.

P
It does appear that we will be purchasing a house in Abilene; and, of course, I will want some sort of life protection on the mortgage. Any help you might render in locating a four bedroom house in the medium-price range will be appreciated. We anticipate many years of pleasant work in Abilene and will be privileged to count you as one of our friends.

Y
Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
