Mr. Robert Carey
11 Apollonos
Amarousion, Athens, Greece

Dear Robert:

I remember with pleasure our trip together to Corinth last spring. It was kind of you and the others to take time from your busy schedules to take us on this very informative and delightful trip. It was one of the highlights of our entire trip.

Recently, it was a pleasure to work with the Buena Park congregation along with fourteen others in Orange County in a campaign. There are still obvious evidences of your work and influence in that area.

Please excuse my tardy fulfillment of a promise. Enclosed is a copy of my book. It may not be worth the postage it takes to get it to you, but I did want you to have it as an expression of my gratitude for the time that you spent with our group when we visited in Athens last spring. Our prayers are with your work in Greece.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
