Dear Brother Edwards:

Your kind letter written immediately following the Pepperdine lectures was deeply appreciated even though I have been extremely tardy in reply. I am so happy to know of your decision to go into full-time preaching, for I sense all over the country a crying need for more workers who will dedicate their total talents to the Lord's service.

I can possibly preach in a meeting for the Central congregation in 1972. The meeting would have to include either Sunday morning through Friday evening or Monday evening through the following Sunday. I do have some time in the summer and early fall of 1972. Unfortunately, I have no time remaining in 1969 or 1970.

If the brethren desire to schedule a meeting that far into the future, I will appreciate hearing from you in the near future with a suggested time of the year. We send you our very best wishes and hope to keep in contact with you through the years.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
