Dear Sir:

Mrs. Maxine Neal is a highly proficient and experienced secretary. During recent months she has worked on special assignments for me and an international radio and television program, Herald of Truth. Her work was exceptional even in the face of demanding deadlines which by her organization and skill we were always able to meet.

As a member of this congregation and as a personal secretary, I have a better than average knowledge of her general attitudes toward life. I consider her not only technically competent but mature in all judgments affecting her work.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
