Dear O. T.:

Please accept my genuine gratitude for your thoughtful and generous contribution to our gospel tent meeting. Your check and the money it represents does not even begin to compare with the way you have used your good influence and reputation to increase our attendance each night under the tent. I want you to know that I am aware of this and deeply appreciate the interest which you are showing in our work.

It is my sincere desire that the future will bring many more opportunities for our mutual interest and activity. Please feel free to call on me at anytime I can be of help to you or your family in any way. Thank you again for your generosity.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
